Sub: Option for residence accommodation (2023-24 Academic Session)

20/04/2023

This is to inform that, all the student-residents availing residence facility for the current academic session need to give their options for availing residence facility in the following link. While giving their options please note the followings.

1. Since limited AC rooms are available in the residence, preference of AC accommodation will be given to those student-residents who are already availing the AC accommodation in the current session.
2. Balance AC rooms will be offered to the student-residents who are changing their options from non-AC to AC accommodation. In case the number of AC room applicants is more than the available vacancy; the allotment will be based on merit.
3. The last date for giving the options is 30th April 2023.
4. All the student-residents are required to give their options. A present student-resident not giving option will be treated as, he/she is not interested to continue in the residence for the next academic session and no room will be allotted to him/her for 2023-24 academic session.
5. Please note that simply giving an option for residence accommodation will not guarantee a seat in residence for 2023-24 academic session. The Final allotment will be done by the Residence Committee based on all the factors as mentioned in the Student's Hand Book.
